

THE CROSS

JESUS IN CHINA

is a 4 part documentary composed of testimonies, songs and stories. In the fall of 2003, it was launched simultaneously in the United States and Europe. The documentary video describes the turbulent 50-year history of Chinese Christians in China. Using live footage and interviews, it captures true stories and seeks to answer some of the most common questions, such as the following:

- How did the number of Chinese Christians increase from 700,000 in 1949 to approximately 70 million today, despite communist control?
- How does the Chinese Government deal with Chinese Christians?
- How do Chinese Christians develop, survive and grow?
- What kind of people are they, and what kind of influence have they had and will they have on the Chinese society?

The video consists of three episodes and one short subject. It is approximately four hours long.

DISC 1. Seeds of Blood follows the bloody footprints of Chinese missionaries after the Boxer Rebellion. The stories of Mingdao Wang, John Sung, Watchman Nee, Allen Yuan, Samuel Lamb, Moses Xie, Xinfei Yang and Epaphras are all included.

DISC 2. The Bitter Cup abounds in compelling testimonies by missionaries after the Cultural Revolution. Their dedication, faithfulness and gratitude have led to an unprecedented revival of the Chinese Christian Churches.

DISC 3. The Spring of Life recounts the real life and the inner world of Christians from a variety of backgrounds, such as farmers, students, officials, criminals, orphans, actors, writers, scientists and entrepreneurs.

DISC 4. The Canaan Hymns tells the amazing story of a farm girl named Xiao Min. She was a junior high school dropout with no musical training. Yet, with the guidance of the Holy Spirit, she was able to compose a thousand hymns, which are being sung among Chinese Christian Churches around the world.

THE CROSS

JESUS IN CHINA

is a powerful collection of interviews and testimonies, taped on location in China, of Christians from all walks of life, collected across three years. Yuan (Zhiming) brilliantly combines his talents as a filmmaker, philosopher, and apologist as he weaves the dozens of stories into a coherent montage.

His dual-language video series may prove to be one of the most powerful evangelistic tools in contemporary Chinese history.

—— Christianity Today
“Behind China’s Closed Doors”
February, 2005

The Cross—Jesus in China is a collection of Chinese Christian testimonies, and definitely it will become a Chinese Church documentary film classic. This documentary film will definitely have a very strong and great influence in the Chinese churches here, but also will generate tremendous impact and response from churches around the world. It is because this film testifies how God has worked wonders in the suffering and devastating China. It exerts great influences like the famous writings of martyrs of the early church and Reformation period, such as John Foxe's "Books of the Martyrs", and John Bunyan's "Pilgrim's Progress", because there were countless anonymous evangelists who were not afraid to give their lives for the sake of the Gospel.

—— Christian Times of Hong Kong
"The Cross – Jesus in China and the Influence of Canaan Hymns"
January, 2004

After the Thanksgiving dinner with friends at home, we showed "The Cross — Jesus in China", a new documentary produced by Yuan (Zhiming) and distributed by the China Soul for Christ Foundation. After watching it, no one went home with a dry eye. Many friends immediately ordered several sets of the documentary (in DVD or VCD format) to give to their relatives and friends. We have been living in North America for forty-four years, and have listened to countless sermons and testimonies, but none of them has touched my heart and stirred my soul as much as the "The Cross".

—— Herald Monthly of North America
January 2004

THE CROSS

JESUS IN CHINA

is produced by China Soul for Christ Foundation. It is a non-profit organization founded in 1999. The main purpose of the organization is to use multimedia in spreading the gospel to the lost souls. Its mission is to let vision be transformed into pictures; let God's light shine upon China; and let God's truth be reflected in China's history.

Another documentary film "China's Confession" was also produced and released in June of 2000 by China Soul for Christ Foundation. This film consists of seven episodes; however, in order to reach a wider audience of both believers and non-believers, the organization took pains to produce an abridged version of "China's Confession". This abridged version which is one and half hour long has mandarin narration with Chinese and English subtitles.

